S.R.O. 331.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of the stabling or herding of animals, and for licensing of premises for use as stables or cowhouses in Delhi Cantonment, framed by the Cantonment Board, Delhi in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (11) and (37) of section 232 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act 1924 (11 of 1924) are published for general information the same having been previously published, and approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

Bye-laws for the Stabling or Herding of Animals and for Licensing of Premises for use as stables or cowhouses in the Delhi Cantonment.

1. Definitions:—For the purposes of these bye-laws—

- (a) "Stable" means any house, shed, building or room in a house, shed or building in which horses, ponies, mules or donkeys are lodged or fed,
- (b) "Cowhouse" means a house, shed or building or room in a house, shed or building in which horned cattle are lodged or fed.

2 No person shall use any stable or cowhouse within the Cantonment for stabling or herding of animals until a licence has been granted for the same in accordance with the provisions of the following bye-laws: Provided that these bye-laws shall not apply to stables or cowhouses in which more than two animals are kept for bona fide private use in villages situated within the limits of Delhi Cantonment.

3. Every person desiring to take out such licence shall apply to the Executive Officer and the Executive Officer may grant the licence or for reasons to be recorded, may refuse it. The number of animals to be stabled or herded in any premises shall be determined by the Executive Officer.

4. Every licence shall be deemed to be for one year ending the 31st March of the following year after the date from which it is expressed to take effect.

5. No licence shall be granted for any stable or cowhouse which does not provide an area of 40 Sq. ft. for each head of cattle authorised to be kept therein or thereon provided that a licence may be granted for an existing stall of lesser dimensions if, in the opinion of the Executive Officer, it is provided with sufficient drainage and ventilation. No licence shall be granted for premises for the accommodation of sheep or goats unless a space of at least 120 cubic feet is allowed for each head.

6. The floors of all premises licenced under these bye-laws shall be well paved with asphalt, stone with cement pointing, flagstones set in cement, or some other suitable impervious material approved by the Executive Officer and shall slope towards, and end in, a drain there.

7. A licence shall not be granted for any premises situated underneath any place used for human habitation, unless the ceiling of the premises is separated from the floor of such place by an unbroken layer of at least 3 inches of concrete, stone, brick or mud.

8. A licence shall not be granted for any premises within 100 feet from any bakery or licenced butcher shop if in the opinion of the Health Officer the grant of such licence is harmful from a sanitary point of view.

9. Every licensee shall deposit or cause to be deposited all the dung and dried refuse in such places as the Executive Officer may fix for the purpose. This bye-law shall not prevent the licensee from selling or otherwise disposing of the cowdung provided the method of disposal is approved of by the Executive Officer. No dung or liquid matter of washed water shall be permitted to flow into any public drain, nor shall it be deposited in any public receptacle.

10. Every licensee shall cause the premises licenced under these bye-laws to be cleaned out daily between the hours of 08.00 and 09.00 and the walls and ceiling thereof to be lime washed once in every six months.

11. The licensee shall not use, or allow to be used any premises licenced under these bye-laws for human habitation.

12. The Executive Officer may suspend or cancel any licence for breach of any of the provisions of these bye-laws.

13. Any breach of the above bye-laws shall on conviction be punishable with a fine which may not exceed fifty rupees or, in the case of a continuing offence, with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the date of the first conviction, during which the offender is proved to have persisted in the offence.
